

Welcome to Orono Schools ISD #278!

What You Need to Know

Essential Resources
Employee Handbook	The Employee Handbook contains summaries of important laws, policies, and expectations. Descriptions of procedures utilized across the District are also provided. All employees are responsible for working within the parameters of these guidelines and are encouraged to contract appropriate staff for support as needed.
Contracts and Collective Bargaining Agreements (CBAs)	Bargaining group contracts that govern employment relationships with the District are available to view on the Staff Intranet.
Excellence at Orono Schools
Mission Statement	"Orono Schools will inspire lifelong learners and ethical citizens who positively impact our world."
Strategic Plan	The District's strategic plan is organized around three Strategic Goal Areas: Scholarship, Character, and Connectedness. Staff work together to employ the strategies of personalized learning, continuous improvement, human development, cultural competence, family partnership, and community engagement to open doors to open doors for students.
Teaching and Learning	Staff are part of a results-driven organization, existing in a Professional Learning Community (PLC) culture, to do whatever it takes for every child to succeed.
	Curriculum and pedagogy are shaped by many influences, including policy directives and educational research. In response, District leadership, working in collaboration with teacher leaders and the Board of Education, identifies the most effective approaches. Teaching staff are expected to implement instruction using District-endorsed curriculum and pedagogical practices.
	Orono Schools is consistently ranked among the top high schools in Minnesota and nationwide, earning recognition from U.S. News & World Report, the AP School Honor Roll, and other respected measures of student achievement and organizational excellence.
Character	Orono Schools has a decades-long tradition of focusing on the development of positive character traits as defined by CharacterCounts!© • Trustworthiness • Respect • Responsibility • Fairness • Caring • Citizenship
The Ideal Team Player© The Table Group	Employees are called on to collaborate with authenticity, demonstrating humility in their interactions, passion and drive in their work, and emotional intelligence in building strong, respectful relationships with everyone they encounter in their work.
